

AFSI Website

- Human Disturbance landing page: highlights the several projects and documents that have been developed to help land managers address human disturbance issues related to beach walking and dogs
- Guidance and Best Practices for Evaluating and Managing Human Disturbances to Migrating Shorebirds on Coastal Lands in the Northeastern United States: Utilizing a transdisciplinary approach, integrating social, ecological, and stakeholder knowledge to create the document allowed for a more comprehensive set of guidelines, with the goal of wider utility for managers.
 - As a result of the Guidance and BPs we developed three videos: General Disturbance, Disturbance by dogs, and disturbance to migrants. Videos are available in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, and are available to access on the AFSI site
